STAHLER.

STAHLER

The Berlin-based DJ and producer Stahler aims to spread joy through creating lofty and floating musical journeys. His melodic indie dance sets are appreciated for their danceable, yet wobbly and deep sounds infused with tasteful influences from the lively 80s, banging Italo Disco and solid Dark Disco tunes, covering wide electronic frequency terrains.

Moving from Singapore to Berlin in 2014 Stahler discovered the decks during a night of escalation and synth ecstasy.

Shortly after he began playing DJ sets at intimate events & house parties before he started to perform at bigger parties and events, ranging from art exhibitions to clubs and festivals.

STAHLER

Since 2018, Sascha is producing music under his artist name Stahler and released various tracks ranging from deep house to indie dance.

His 2023 re-edit of the Dead Or Alive classic “You spin me round” on Feinstoff remained the most played track for months and was featured and supported across various stages over the year.
